

Your Daily Newsletter

December 11, 2025

Today's Highlights

Here's a 3-4 sentence executive summary highlighting the main themes and most important stories of the day: "The world of sports is heating up with the announcement of the BBC Sports Personality of the Year 2025 shortlist, featuring some of the UK's most talented athletes. On the field, England faces crucial decisions ahead of the third Ashes Test, while Lewis Hamilton remains hopeful for a turnaround after a 'nightmare' year with Ferrari. Meanwhile, Lionel Messi is set to unveil a massive 70ft statue of himself in India as part of his 'GOAT Tour', and Noni Madueke's two-goal performance led Arsenal to a 3-0 win over Club Brugge. From the pitch to the podium, this week's sports news is full of triumph and drama."

Today's edition features 10 curated articles just for you.

Sports Personality of the Year shortlist announced

BBC Sport | December 11, 2025

The shortlist for the 2025 BBC Sports Personality of the Year award has been announced, and it features some of the most talented athletes in the UK. The list includes individuals who have made incredible achievements in their respective sports, such as winning championships, breaking records, and inspiring others with their determination and hard work. Now, the public will get to vote for their favorite athlete, and the winner will be revealed at a special ceremony later in the year.

Read full article

Weekly sports quiz: When did Salah last score for Liverpool?

BBC Sport | December 11, 2025

Unfortunately, I don't see the article content. However, I can help you with a general sports quiz question about Mohamed Salah. Here's a possible summary: "Take a look back at the world of sports over the past week! Can you remember when Egyptian superstar Mohamed Salah last scored a goal for Liverpool? If you need a hint, you might want to brush up on your football news!"

Read full article

BBC Sports Personality of the Year 2025 contenders

BBC Sport | December 11, 2025

Get ready to cheer on your favorite athletes, as six incredible sports stars have made it to the shortlist for the BBC's Sports Personality of the Year award in 2025. The talented contenders include footballers, a rugby player, a darts player, a golfer, and a Formula 1 driver, all of whom have shown amazing skills and dedication to their sports. Who will take home the coveted award?

Read full article

'No-one downing tools' - Alonso's stay of execution despite loss to Man City

BBC Sport | December 11, 2025

Manchester City had a big win against their rivals, which surprised and delighted the fans from the opposing team. This unexpected turn of events led to cheers from the opposing fans, who initially booed the visiting team's coach, Pep Guardiola. The win was a great morale booster for Manchester City and their coach, especially after an initial tough start to the game.

Read full article

Four decisions for England before third Ashes Test

BBC Sport | December 11, 2025

Here's a summary of the news article in 3 clear and simple sentences: England is at a critical point in the Ashes series against Australia, and they need to make some tough decisions before the third test to get back on track. They'll have to decide which players to pick for the team, how to adjust their strategy, and what changes to make to their batting and bowling lineups. These decisions could make or break England's chances of winning the series, which is currently slipping away from them.

Read full article

'Mine was for social change, this is not' - King on Battle of the Sexes

BBC Sport | December 11, 2025

Legendary tennis player Billie Jean King is speaking out about a recent match between Aryna Sabalenka and Nick Kyrgios. King says this match isn't the same as her famous "Battle of the Sexes" match in 1973, which was a key moment for women's tennis and social change. King's match against Bobby Riggs was a groundbreaking moment in tennis history, and she's making it clear that this recent match doesn't have the same significance.

Read full article

What next after Hamilton's 'nightmare' year?

BBC Sport | December 11, 2025

Here's a summary of the article in 3 simple sentences: Lewis Hamilton had a tough year racing for Ferrari, with the team struggling to perform well. Despite the ups and downs, Hamilton remains hopeful that Ferrari can turn things around in the future. With new developments on the horizon for the 2026 season, there's a chance for Ferrari to revive their racing success and make next year a brighter one.

Read full article

Madueke scores twice in Arsenal victory over Club Brugge

BBC Sport | December 10, 2025

Arsenal's Noni Madueke scored two goals and teammate Gabriel Martinelli added another to lead their team to a 3-0 win over Club Brugge. This victory keeps Arsenal's winning streak going in the Champions League. The team is now performing well in this prestigious European competition.

Read full article

What must Allen and Bills do to end Patriots' 10-game win streak?

BBC Sport | December 11, 2025

The Buffalo Bills are struggling to keep up with their divisional rivals, the New England Patriots, who have a 10-game winning streak. To have any chance of stopping the Patriots and winning the AFC East, the Bills need to win their upcoming game against the Patriots. If they succeed, it could turn the tables in their favor and give them a shot at the top spot in their division.

Read full article

Messi to unveil 70ft statue of himself on 'GOAT' tour

BBC Sport | December 11, 2025

Get ready for a massive tribute to soccer superstar Lionel Messi. As part of his "GOAT Tour", Messi is set to unveil a gigantic 70-foot statue of himself in India, showcasing his incredible talent and dedication to the sport. This massive statue will be a symbol of Messi's status as one of the greatest soccer players of all time.

Read full article